Our Search for Knowledge

Above you see pictured the five lacy spires of Century 21, and the United States Science Pavilion.

The architectural beauty of these spires makes one think of the world of tomorrow — and indeed, each spire represents one of tomorrow's great fields of endeavor.

The theme of Century 21, Seattle's World Fair, is "Man's search for greater knowledge ..." We have chosen this as our theme and, accordingly, have divided our 1962 Angelican into five worlds.

As you page through your annual this year and see Holy Angels' students working in these five fields, remember that each has a place in the future; that each can, and will, help to build a better America — and a better world.

Dedication

This edition of the Angelican is dedicated to President John Fitzgerald Kennedy whose extraordinary qualities of strong leadership, combined with his courage and intellectual brilliance, have brought youth, hard work, and ambition to the reins of government. He is an inspiration to the youth of today — for in our generation lie the hopes and dreams of our nation's future.

In these demanding times, our education is of vital importance in helping us to reach bright and correct decisions. As we leave our school days behind us, we are aware that in this decade of change and challenge we can use our education not only to benefit ourselves and our families, but to benefit our nation and the world as well.

Student

Government

The Student Council is the governing body of the school. This group under the guidance of Sister Mary Rose de Lima enacts legislation that it feels will benefit the entire Student Body.

It is a great honor to be elected to the student council and the girls who hold these offices are aware of their responsibilities to Holy Angels and are proud and willing to serve the school in this manner.

In student government the girls face, on a small scale, the problems of leaders. They receive training for roles as leaders of tomorrow.

SEATED: Janet Sullivan, Dorothy Dalton, Mary Mosey, and Yvonne Waldbillig. STANDING: Marie Millet, Patricia Steer, Kathleen Seese, Patricia Carel, Karen Winters, Linda Mayorsky, and Gail Beeson.

Character, Service, Leadership, Scholarship

At the closing of the National Honor Society ceremony, these girls received the honor of being named probationers. They are: Pat Brown, Pauline Lord, Elizabeth Mitchell, Marie Millet and Chloe Beeson.

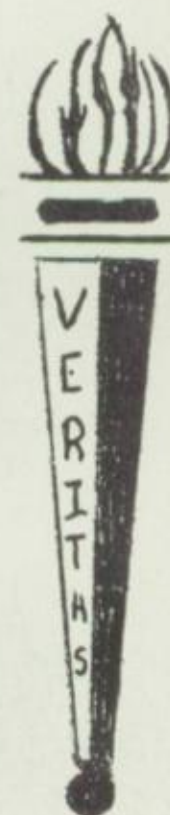

Colleen Duffy lights the blue candle of leadership, symbolic of all those who sacrifice their own interests for the good of the group.

Pat Carel and Pat Steer await their turn to be pinned.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The "Veritas Chapter" of the National Honor Society aims at stimulating students to achieve and maintain a high level of character, service, leadership and scholarship. Under the direction of Sister Maureen the Society has flourished and has proved to be a major asset to Holy Angels.

The people of the parish proudly attends the first ceremonies in the new Saint Alphonsus church.

The Most Reverend Archbishop, Thomas A. Connolly, read the prayers for the laying of the cornerstone. To his immediate right is Father A. J. Shaughnessy, pastor of Saint Alphonsus church.

"How lovely is Thy dwelling place, Oh, Lord of Hosts!" The new Saint Alphonsus church is truly a lovely dwelling place for our Blessed Lord. Costing nearly $400,000, it has many beautiful and inspiring features. Prominent among these are the Loire sculptured windows, the large Crucifix over the main altar, and the altar appointments of green and white marble with bronze accents.

After the newness has worn off, it will still be a beautiful church — even as the old Saint Alphonsus church was — because Christ dwells there.

Father Shaughnessy blesses the Advent Wreath.

Among our Holy Angels traditions are the Advent ceremony, performed each Monday in Advent, and the December 8 procession in honor of Our Lady's Immaculate Conception.

Pictured below are the class representatives who were privileged to read their meditations to our Blessed Mother. Traditionally, a meditation is recited after each mystery of the rosary and each class sings a hymn to Mary. In addition, each girl places a letter of petition and thanksgiving in a basket at the foot of the altar. The ceremony is closed with an act of consecration to the Blessed Virgin.

Mary Mosey, senior, honors Our Lady with her meditation.

Colleen Duffy represents the Junior class.

The sophomore meditation is read by Pauline Lord.

Joyce Beers, freshman, recites her meditation of praise and thanksgiving.

May is the month during which we especially honor Mary. Early in that month the Catholic schools of the archdiocese take part in the annual May procession at Saint Edward's Seminary.

After much fun and merriment on the chartered buses which transport the students to the seminary, everyone becomes serious as they say the rosary and sing hymns to Mary. The ceremony is climaxed with the crowning of Mary as Queen of the May, and Solemn Benediction.

1944 GRAD ANGELS PROUD MAKES HOLY

1. Doctor Pat aids this smiling young 13-year old suffering from malnutrition.

2. This young mother has leprosy; her child will inevitably contract the disease.

On September 11, Doctor Patricia Smith came back to her Alma Mater from Kontum, Viet Nam equipped with slides, films, and a magnetic personality.

"Doctor Pat" has been working among the Aborigines in South Viet Nam for the past three years — a job which requires a great deal of courage, perseverance, and a strong sense of humor.

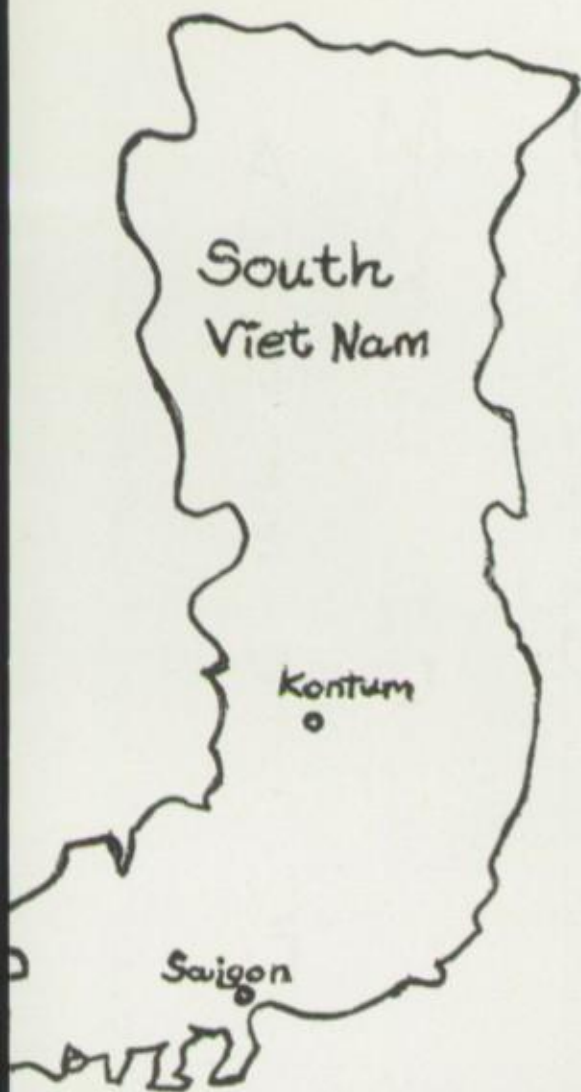

Besides the ordinary problems of disease, poverty, superstition, language, lack of medical supplies, etc., there is also the matter of Communism. The Communists are always up to their clever tricks of burning bridges, stealing babies, and carrying on guerrilla warfare. What to combat these problems? Doctor Pat places a lot of confidence in prayer. "I have to travel back roads alone by automobile, I go unarmed, relying for my safety on prayer. What else?" When asked if the village sorcerers gave her much trouble she replied that they did not. "In fact, they often come to me when they get sick, which proves how much confidence they have in their own magic!"

The purpose of Doctor Pat's visit was to seek help for her people in Kontum. "I can't think of a thing we couldn't use."

Now that the threat of Communism has become more imminent, especially in South Viet Nam and neighboring Laos, Doctor Pat needs our prayers, as do all lay apostles who are fighting in the army of Christ.

Retreat time is prayer time.

The Sophomores carry the retreat spirit into their homeroom as they recite the rosary.

Father Parmisano explains the first great lesson of the Incarnation — Christ comes to us.

Retreatants reflect, meditate and pray for special graces to carry crosses and to resist temptation. January 23—26 marked our first retreat in the new Saint Alphonsus church. Father Fabian Parmisano, Dominican retreat master, gave the "Angels" much food for thought.

Confession, Mass and Communion, conferences and spiritual exercises, climaxed with the papal blessing, made this retreat a time for special graces.

"Go forth and teach ye all nations . . ."

Although Mary Low and Joanne Gietzen are students themselves, on Saturday morning they double as teachers.

"The Rosary is the most powerful prayer for world peace," explain Shirley Roi and Jo Ann Marino.

Christ's command is heeded by those who willingly sacrifice their time to instruct children and young adults who do not have the opportunity to receive religious instruction along with their secular training.

With a strong foundation and a definite aim the CCD thus draws souls into the arms of Holy Mother Church. This mission is enacted through the CCD's personnel, whether by its helpers, teachers, or fishers of men.

Using ingenuity Pat Carel and Mary Yaklich capitalize on a calendar picture in telling the Christmas story to their CCD class.

The reading chart and math problems are foundations for children of the world; Rita Duncan and Barbara Carel give the foundation for children of God.

"If you follow her, you will not stray . . ."

Rosarians

With Mary as their ideal and Sister Mary Rose de Lima as their moderator, the Rosarians perform various charitable works for others besides going to Mass and receiving Holy Communion every Tuesday.

The Viettes pledge themselves to observe first Saturdays in a spirit of reparation, to pray the Rosary, and to make a 15-minute meditation on the mysteries of the Rosary. They also pray for the conversion of Russia.

Their activities include Christmas caroling, visits to Mary's shrines, circulating pamphlets about Mary and an annual day of recollection at Rosary Heights.

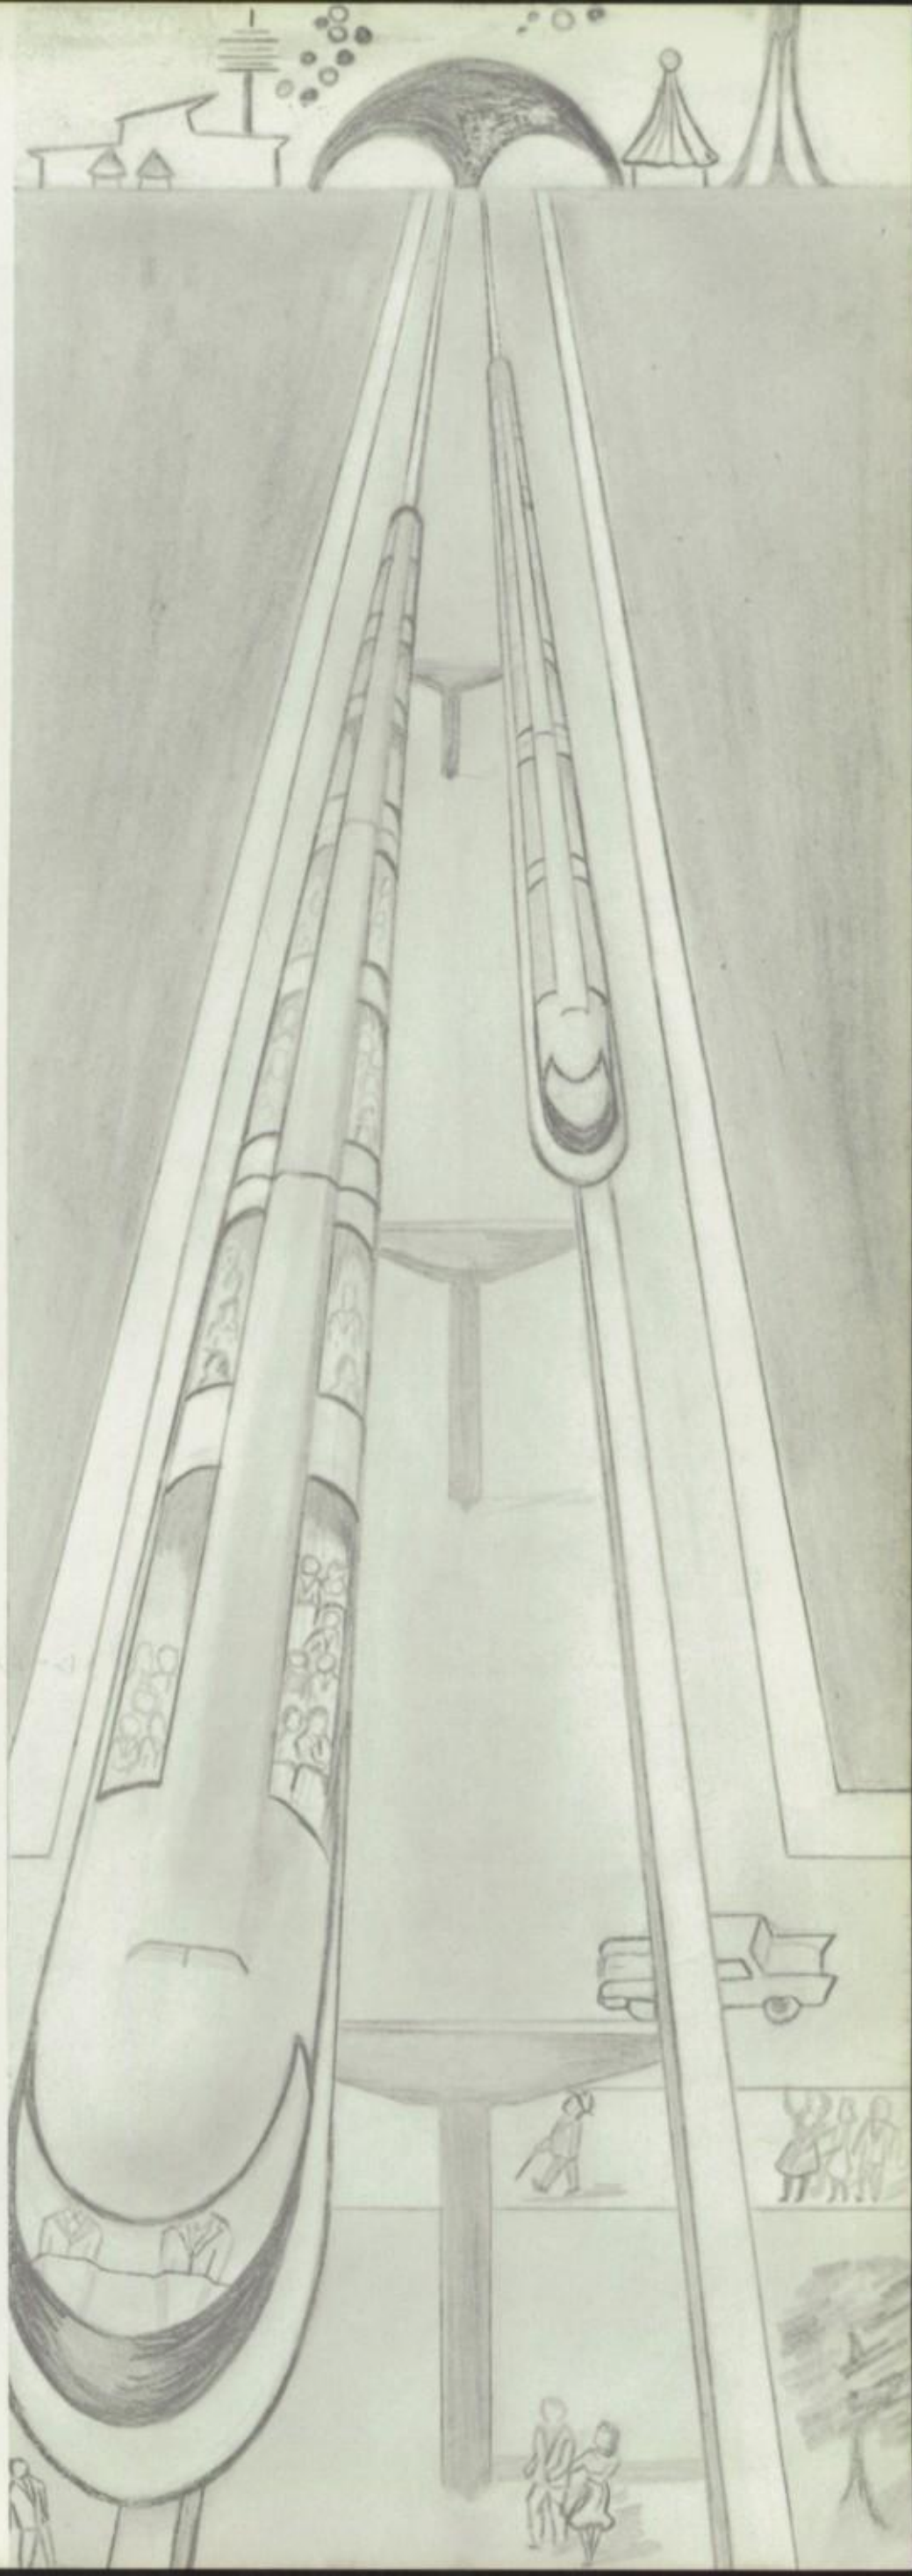

Father O'Shea, spiritual director, and Dorothy Dalton, president, discuss plans for future Rosarian projects.

As well as librarians and advertisers . . .

A book isn't the only thing that has pages — Holy Angels has its own special kind. They can be found in the library just like the others, but their line of work is different. Page Club members can be found checking out books, returning them to their proper places, or typing up reference cards — and that is ex-

New Quill and Scroll members Mary Ann Cullinane, Mary Smith, Helen Steer, and Alice Linscott plan activities.

Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, was revived at Holy Angels last year after several years of inactivity.

Any junior or senior working on a high school publication and scholastically in the upper third of her class is eligible. Scholarships and other benefits are available through membership.

Students who are interested in working on the Clarion or Angelican are urged to do so to make Quill and Scroll an important part of Holy Angels.

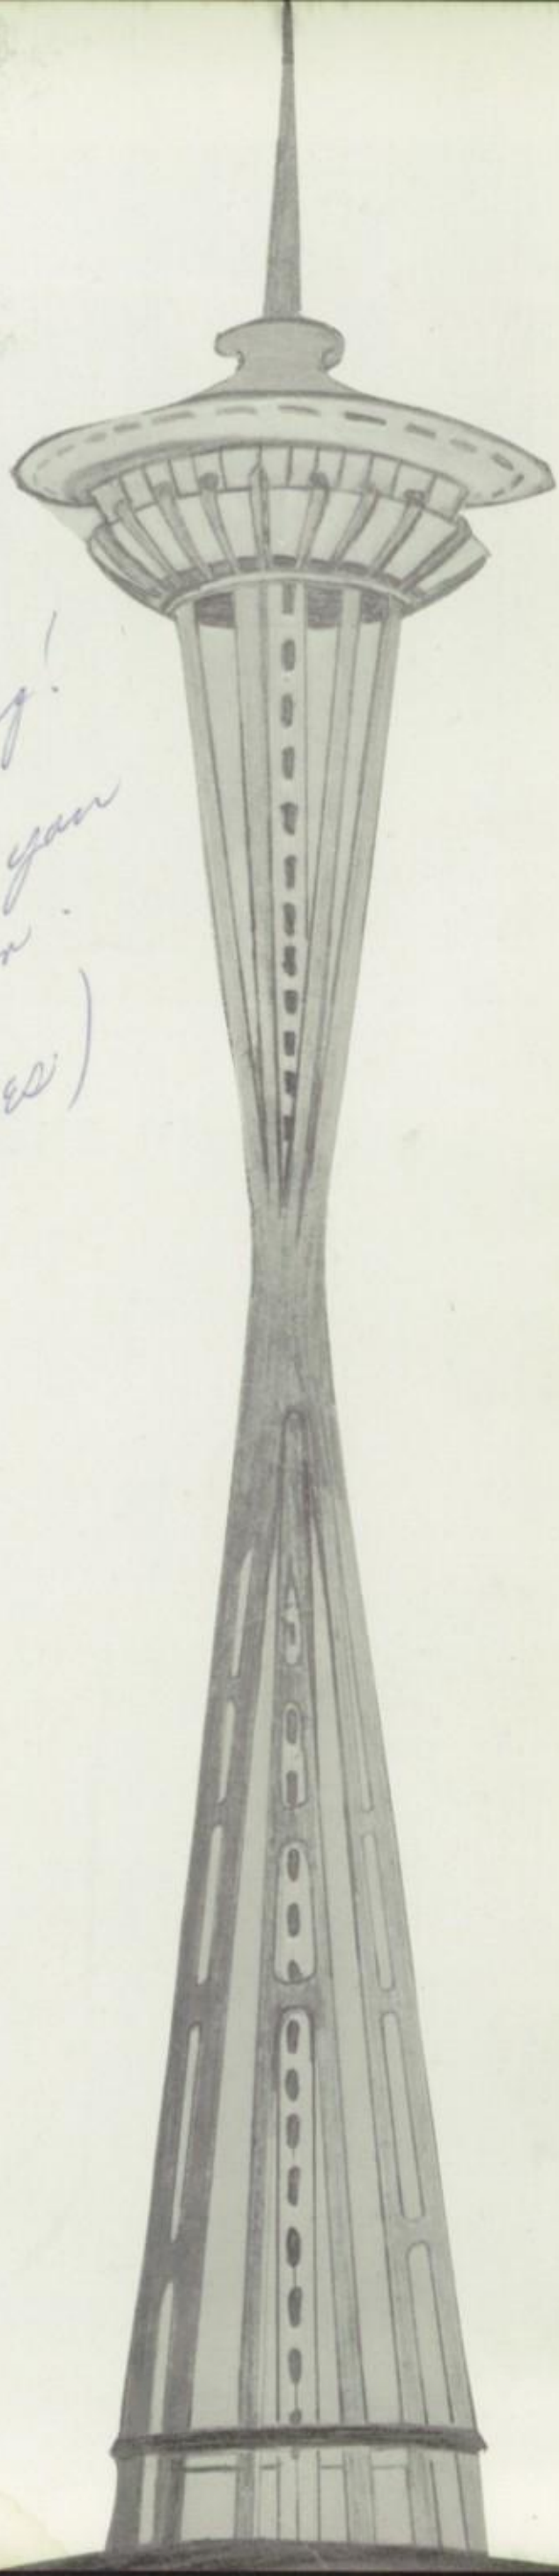

Members of the Journalism and Creative Writing classes use their charm and personality to entice the student body's appetite. "How 'bout one more?" asks Pamela Hawkins.

Margie Schwan, our Junior class president, beams as she presents the bouquet of roses to beautiful prom queen, Mary Smith while Mary Lou Campbell, 1960 prom queen, smilingly looks on.

Valhalla, our heavenly prom

"Norwegian Heaven" was the theme, and indeed the juniors felt that they were dancing in the clouds to the heavenly music of Vern Mallory at their prom at Norway Center, from nine to twelve, Friday, April 21.

Queen Mary was lovely in her white floor-length formal and looked very majestic with rhinestone tiara and royal blue robe. Princesses Dorothy Dalton and Diane Van Hollebeke were radiant as were attendants Mary Mosey, Helen Steer, and Kathy Jacobsen.

George August's pictures and the magic of the evening itself will keep memories lingering of Valhalla, our Junior Prom.

"OK Helen and Mary! I don't want my picture taken!" The queen, armed with ladder and decorations, is unwillingly "snapped."

Mary and her escort, Jack Urquhart, lead in the waltz following the coronation.

Attendant Kathy Jacobsen and Princess Diane Van Hollebeke view the coronation. In the background are: Sally Gucinski, Yvonne Waldbillig, Sharon Setzer, Laura Campbell, and escorts.

"It's lovely, Debbie!" Sister Maria Goretti approves of Debbie Dyer's choice.

Under dim lights and pastel streamers, the couples drift happily around the floor. Pictured in the foreground are Mary Ann Cullinane, Juli Hohlbein, Mary Charbonneau, and escorts.

'The Twelfth of Never'

Roses for the Queen!

On January 12, 1962 the Senior Class presented their Winter Ball held at the Fort Lawton Officers' Club grand ballroom.

With the enchanting music of Jackie Souders and his orchestra in the background, the Seniors and guests danced the night away.

The highlight of the evening was the Coronation Ceremony. First came the presentation of the royal court which consisted of the outstanding Senior Girls of the Month. Then came the magic, much-awaited-for moment when Class President, Kathy Seese, opened the sealed envelope and announced that Mary Charbonneau, Winter Ball Chairman, has been voted Queen of the Senior Ball. Applause and cheers broke out as Queen Mary came forward to receive her crown and bouquet of roses. It was a truly memorable night for Mary, but by no means less memorable for the girls and their escorts.

We'll "never" forget January 12th and the "Twelfth of Never" Prom.

OUR WONDERFUL CHAPERONES were: Mr. & Mrs. Swanson, Mr. & Mrs. McDonald, Mr. & Mrs. Amon, Mr. & Mrs. Renforth, Mrs. Seese, Mr. & Mrs. Lagasse, Mr. & Mrs. Linscott, Mr. & Mrs. Charbonneau, Mr. & Mrs. Dyer.

Our Lis was 'Queen of the Irish'

It was from these girls that the O'Dea Queen was chosen: Princesses Kathy Blaine, Mary Beth Grant, Robin Moran, Camilla Burnnett and Queen Lis.

As the five O'Dea princesses entered the Olympic Hotel Ballroom the thought uppermost in their minds was, "What does the future of this evening hold for me? Will I be chosen?" The big moment drew closer and our Lis began to feel a little shaky. Then — "The new Queen of the O'Dea Irish is Elisabeth Olson from Holy Angels!" As she walked up to receive her crown and bouquet she passed the other candidates for queen, and tears came to her eyes, because during their months of cheer-leading together, as Lis would say, "We'd become real buddies." It was a joyous moment when she was crowned and received her bouquet and watch. May we add our congratulations and say, "Long live the Queen!"

American beauties — the roses and our Queen Lis.

Patrol

The Holy Angels division of the Seattle Junior Safety Patrol is kept busy providing safe crossing through the heavy traffic for the students of Holy Angels. The forty-five members of this patrol, under the direction of their advisor, Sister M. Patricia, strive for perfect accomplishment of all assignments rain or shine.

Sports Club

With Sister M. Cecilia as their sponsor, the members of the Sports Club strive to further recreational get-togethers among the students of Holy Angels and maintain standards of good sportsmanship. Particularly enjoyable events were the bowling games, skating parties, and ski trips of this year.

The Holy Angels' Glee Club is shown at the KING-TV studio ready to perform on the inspirational program, "And Give Thee Peace."

ANGELS know the joy of singing

The Glee Club has been very active this year. Its two most prominent programs were the Christmas pageant, which was dramatized by the Sophomore Class, and the spring concert, which occurred too late in the year to appear in the annual.

Under Sister Mary Lawrence's instruction these girls have learned to "give" of themselves, and their hard work has been rewarded by the well-earned compliments they have received after each performance.

Kathy Healey and Francine Fahey share the foreground of this picture of industry.

Leslie Carter and Sister M. Rosaire are interrupted in their scenery painting.

"Does it tickle much?"

"There you go, Karen. You look so sweet!"

Kathy Healey and Sister Lawrence put up the "sky" for the pageant.

"The angel of the Lord declared unto Mary . . .

Juli Hohlbein and Yvonne Waldbillig do an Advent dance.

"Go tell it on the mountain!"

This was the grand finale of our Christmas pageant.

| Bandits .....            | 16 |

Mixed feeling of tears and laughter were present when the Junior "Peppermint Stripes" won a close victory over the senior "Smith Family." Two overtimes of two minutes each were needed to break the tie game. The tense excitement of the crowd reached a climax during the last few minutes of the game when a Junior made a basket ending the game with the final score of 20-18.

The spirit and enthusiasm of the freshmen were dampened when the Sophomore "Hurricanes" defeated the Freshmen "Bandits" by a close score of 18-16.

The cheers and applause by supporters of all the teams were both tremendous and vociferous. This demonstrated good spirit and true sportsmanship that exists among the teams, the cheerleaders, the spectators, and all H. A. girls.

Pictured before the battle are the Senior "Smith Family." STANDING are: A. Linscott, D. Monuteaux, M. Smith (captain), D. Van Hollebeke, J. Doboszynski; KNEELING, R. Chapman, K. Swanson, K. Jacobsen, S. Bickford, H. Steer, and M. Cullinane.

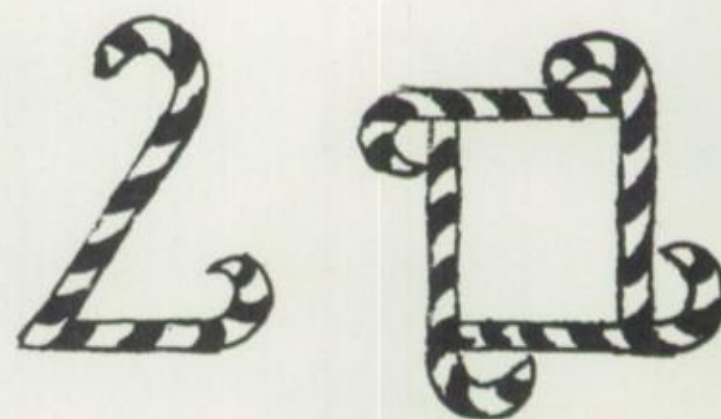

Defeated but happy are Senior cheerleaders: R. Duncan, E. Olson, B. Carel, and their cheerful mascot, Norbert Waldbillig.

These mild looking Junior "Peppermint Stripes" really got hot before the final game. STANDING are: C. LaFreniere, S. Lord, S. Picht, K. LaFreniere, K. Aldridge, S. Braley, P. Steer; KNEELING, G. Willcocks, J. Rundorff, B. Covich (captain), P. Howell, and J. Scanlon.

Peppy Junior cheerleaders are: P. Carmen, J. Beyer, J. McMurray, K. Cox, and their mascots.

Beaming with victory the Sophomore "Hurricanes" are: TOP ROW, D. Cullinane (captain), M. Millet, P. Lord, A. Allen, E. Fackler, M. Van Kirk, J. Michlitsch, P. McEachern, K. Junkin; BOTTOM ROW, C. Beeson, E. Mitchell, L. Swain, S. Roi, J. Webb, C. Sprong, J. Garnett, and N. Turner.

The unsuspecting "Bandits" await their first defeat. TOP ROW, J. Kinnear, M. McDonell, B. Blazeovich, T. McBride, N. Olsen, M. Lord; MIDDLE ROW, L. Mayovsky, Y. Jonich, S. Aldridge, K. Ries, K. Galvin, K.

Korth; LAST ROW, K. DeSanto, L. Nyman, K. Luby, M. Fisher, J. Redfield, C. Cox, and G. Beeson who is not pictured.

The "Bandits" cheerleaders are: C. Stasak, K. Leindecher, S. Black, and P. Kearney.

Good-by, now — We'll see you at the Fair!

THANK YOU

With the aims and lofty ideals of the "World of Century 21" as our theme, have we thus expressed ourselves in this 1962 edition of the Angelican. Now we wish to express our appreciation of heartfelt "thanks" to those who have contributed to the success of the previous pages: to our patrons for their unfailing support, to the student body for their cooperation, to the Bert Perler Studio and Mr. Charlie Helb for the captivating reminiscence of their pictures. A special, sincere thanks we wish to extend to Mr. Palm, American Yearbook Adviser, for his encouraging advice, and a last "thanks" to Sister Mary Cecilia for her inspiration and guidance. Without all of these people this Angelican would not be; with them we feel we have published a truly memorable yearbook!

EVERYONE

Dear Mamma,

We all here we are sighting annuals again. We sure have had alot of fun these past four years.
Especially at the Senior Ball this year when we went out to dinner with Mary Ella and George, you and Louis, Eddie and I. Remember all those neat times we had over at your place didn't we. More fun in Texas, although I'm going to miss you and Louis quite a bit. We Sure had a lot of fun these past four years. I hope we can get together this summer with Ed and Louis.
I can't hardly wait till I will be able to be your bridesmaid in your wedding.
Tell Louis I think he is a real good looking Doll. More fun this summer and let's keep in touch with each other this summer. O.K. Love'n luck

P. S. I

Love You.

Dear Louis,

It sure has been lots of fun going to the winter Ball with Eddie, I'll never forget the time when we had to go to ~~the~~ our house to get my Kerp. Then we lost you guys down by the campus. Then we found each other on 45th. Then there was the time when Ed + I took you out to the airport, that was sure a sad evening, and especially when you kissed me good-bye. I hope you and Mamma have a happy and wonderful marriage. Ed and I will certainly have a wonderful and a happy future ahead of us.

Love, Mary + Ed.
Kisses

Mama:
I hate signing
annuals, cuz I have to think too
hard. Love 'n' Luck,
Carol

Dearest Love,

So you are finally getting out of school and
on your own, congratulation—

But now that you are a young 'lady of the World

You must try and maintain your actions to reflect the
'good training' you recieved
at home and school—

I'm Hoping that you will succeed, in your future
schoing, your future job,
and your future marriage—

My Love Always

Butch
